Brother Knights,

Our Chaplain Fr Noel McGrath was the Celebrant at our Council Annual Memorial Mass the night before Thanksgiving where we recognized our Brothers and Sisters who passed away this past year. What a great showing of Knights and Columbiettes.

What a wonderful Thanksgiving we had serving 550 Meals to the Needy; it really feels good to do something that is so worthwhile and for a good cause. Thank you Chairman Bob Ward and the entire Kitchen staff led by Burt Vittori. And also the 87+ Volunteers that helped putting it together.

Brothers, yes, I must repeat myself: what a great Council we have and I am proud to be part of it. One of the leaders in south Florida in everything we do.

I hope you got to see the Stuart Christmas Parade on December 5th led by Brother Luke Schweizer as he has done for the past 30+ years. The Knights were out in force. Thanks to all Knights and Columbiettes for the work they put in to prepare the Float and participate in the Parade. Well done everyone!

We also had a Breakfast with Santa at the Holy Redeemer Church in Palm City, well attended with over 100 breakfasts served, prepared by Knights and other Volunteers. See pictures in the Shield.

We held our Annual Christmas Party on December 17th. I’m sure all the Knights that were able to attend had a wonderful time. The Hall was decorated just beautifully by the Hal Harr’s, the John McCarthy’s and Noreen Vittori and a special Dinner was served by Bert Vittori and his elves. Thank you to Ron Robinson who pitched in well, for a not able to attend Grand Knight and did a great job as MC. And a great big Thank you to Brother Bill Buschmann for donating this beautiful 9 foot Christmas Tree.

Congratulation to the Family of the Year Ron and Eleanor Robinson. The Robinsons did so much for us these past years that I just needed to tell them Thank you in my own way.

The Knight of the Year will be presented to our Council at the New Years’ EVE GALA EVENT on December 31st.

Deputy Grand Knight Frank Polis will be setting up the Tootsie Roll Drive for March 20th. and 21st. Be sure to volunteer a couple of hours of your time to help collect funds for ARC and The Challenger School. This event, our largest Fund Raiser of the year, is the K of C Citizens with Disabilities Campaign.

Speaking of volunteers, our Sunday and Thursday Bingo needs your help now!! Please contact one of the Captains listed and join a Team. Don’t wait for the other guy to show up, he never does. The job is very easy, you will be fed and you will work with many great guys. To be a Knight is to be pro-active at our events. Please help out.

As for my unexpected Health Problem- Yes, my Lymphoma came back and we went to the Moffitt Cancer Center for a second opinion. It was determinated that my particular problem needs a different type of treatment and we are starting with that in Tampa on Jan.15th. We are confident that the Doctors can help me there. Thank you for your Cards, Phone calls and Prayers.

I want to wish all my brother Knights and sister Columbiettes a very Happy New Year and that the Lord Bless you with good Health in 2015 and beyond. May the peace of the Lord be with you always!

God Bless you

GK Fritz Wilhelm
A big “thank you” to all of our members who attended our December meeting. Special thanks to my Vice President – Wilma Wilhelm – who helped me with a grand shopping tour to purchase Christmas gifts for the children of THE BOYS & GIRLS CLUB of Martin County. With the assistance of attendees, we were able to assemble 124 “goodie bags” for distribution to these children. Thanks to everyone who participated. This is an example of what can be accomplished when members cooperate. Thanks also to the volunteers who brought cakes, candies and good cheer to our meeting! Thanks to Cornelia Orland and Millie Capel for making all those reminder phone calls, bringing you to the meetings each month.

BINGO: If you are a Snowbird, we need your help! Please start showing up for your appointed Sundays. Our summer teams are straining. Consult the Knights’ Bingo assignment page in this Bulletin.

Happy Birthday to our January celebrants: Rosemary Dudley and Rosa Jackson
If your name never appears as a birthday celebrant, it is because you never told us in what month you celebrate your Birthday; we don’t want to know how old you are – just what month that you celebrate!

Remember in your prayers: Rita Muller, Theresa Weiner, Yolie Rollando, Eleanor Robinson, Josephine Seestadt, Carole Jodoin, Joan Cannell, Joan Fisk and our G.K. – Fritz Wilhelm. Please remember to call our V.P. – Wilma Wilhelm @ (772) 219-2688, if you or another Columbette needs to be remembered in our prayers.

Fond wishes from me and my Board of Officers for a Happy New Year to all my sister Columbiettes, brother Knights and your families! May the Infant Jesus bless us all with good health in this New Year, and may He bless our endeavors to aid those in need of prayer and welfare throughout our community and the world.

Breakfast with Santa at Holy Redeemer

By Frank Polis – Pictures & Story.
A great big thank you to all the Brothers who helped with the Holy Redeemer Breakfast with Santa December 13, 2014. We served approximately 100 meals to Parishioners and their children. Including the Pastor Father Martin B. Mulqueen, Father John Kasparek and Deacon Frank Gluhosky.

The smiles on the faces of the little ones was absolutely precious. Thanks again to Brothers: Dan Ciferri our great Santa, Dennis Banks, Steve Marangio, Tom Massar, Andrew Salisbury, Paul Martin, Dick Bonnell, John Condon, John Praskac, Artie Birke, Phil Bunker, John Hannan, Frank Polis and Jeff Kohuth.

Here is the crew that brought all those smiles to kids.. In front John Hannan, Dick Bonnell, Dennis Banks Standing Frank Polis, Paul Martin, Steve Marangio, Deacon Frank Gluhosky, Dan (Santa) Ciferri, Andrew Salisbury, Phil Bunker, Tom Massar, and John Condon,

Friday Dec 6; K of C 6241 participated in the 2014 Stuart Christmas Parade. It started Wed Night when Brother Luke Schweizer, with the help of brother Knights, put the final touches on the Knights float. The Knights theme was “Keep Christ in Christmas”. With this in mind up went the garland of many different colors to be topped off with the Christmas lights. Luke had assembled the banners float frames and chairs earlier in the day. At around 9PM on Wed all was ready and the crew went home feeling pretty good about the work accomplished. Luke has been in charge of this float for the past 30 years and you could see the pride and love he put into it. Thanks Luke. The start of the Stuart Christmas Parade was very shaky. The sky threatened and it rained pretty hard in and around the Stuart area. There were many phone calls from Brother to Brother wondering if the parade was canceled or still on. The fourth degree color guard elected not to participate. If their regalia, hat with all the beautiful feathers in particular got wet, they would have had a disaster on their hands. Feathers don’t do well when wet. Luke and the rest of the participants braved the weather forecast and went to the prescribed meeting place. The Deputy Grand Knight and his wife were the exception. It being their first experience, they went to the court house parking lot instead of the Martin County Admin building parking lot. That put them about 2 miles away from the other participants. After a few phone calls, Luke took charge, got everyone together at the parade assembly point and we were ready to go. We had brothers out front walking, one open vehicle with the DGK and party, followed by Luke’s truck pulling the Council float loaded with Knights and their spouses, and bringing up the rear was a vintage 1927 Model T Ford owned by Sir Knight Dominic Quinto.

The parade route was lined with people. In some places they were five and six deep. Lots of children and all were wishing everyone a Merry Christmas. It was nice not hearing Happy Holidays. Our float was number 58 out of 79. This was a large parade. All had a good time and I would recommend that all my brothers put this event on your calendar for next year. We would appreciate brothers who could walk the parade route of 1 to 2 miles. The float only accommodate about 12. God Bless.
Our Council has been feeding needy and elderly folks of Martin County, a Thanksgiving dinner since there was a Ronald in the White House. This year we put out 550 meals. Certainly the most charitable deed we do all year.

All these years the driving force has been Bob Ward and the WHOLE VITTORI FAMILY. Bob said Dennis Rose did a great job and he deserves SPECIAL THANKS.

Also we had 85 volunteers to put it all together on Thanksgiving morning. Tom Massar, Bill & Judy Buschmann, Mike Mulligan, Danny Dayrit, Ron Uritus, Paul Nelson, Marge & Tony Vecchio, Larry & Harriet Jenkins, Ralph Scambato, Bill Brinkman, Gabrielle Bunker, Jacob Bunker, Ed-Caite & Fina Corripio, John & Yolie Rollando, Ben Maran, Peggy Buxton, Richard Khoudary, Sue Ward, Karen Napalitero, Kelly-Brock & Miles Butrimon, Dick & Barb Bonnell, Jim Pritchard, The WHOLE VITTORI FAMILY, Dennis Rose, Babs & Joe Guido, Fritz & Wilma Wilhelm, Nick Loscocco, Andy Norwicki, Greg Gollhofer, Mike Bell, Mike Barber, Frank Anfuso, Jerry Seagriff, Kara Russell, Gene Ferraro, Helgas Steinle, Dan Rybicki, Dan Ciferri, Bob Reaney, Denise & Larry Bonadeo, Joel & Frannie Fredrick, John & Joanne Helgren, Michele Scherer, Geof Charabeneau, Phil & Kathy Bunker, Doris & Dave Merklin, Ruthann & Jake Brouillard, Stan Mathews, Danell Samartino, Hudson Selsky, David & Rachel Selsky & Family, Linda Mekulsia, Frank Polis, Terri Fox, Ron Robinson, Ken McDonough. This list of names came from the signup sheet. I am sure several of the kitchen workers were too busy to sign in. MANY THANKS TO THEM TOO.
KNIGHT OF THE MONTH
Bill Buschmann

Since joining less than a year ago he has done Tootsie Roll, team A Sunday Bingo, Breakfasts, Grill setup on Sat, Soccer Challenge, worked to get out 550 meals on Thanksgiving, has donated a 9' Christmas tree, and a Thanksgiving turkey.

Feeling better after operation - Ed DeMieri, December Meeting notes
• Ray Battey needs a ride to our Council Meetings. If you live over by St Joseph Church please call him 283-0137.
• Mary’s Shelter needs car & driver on a as needed basis. Please call 223-5000.
• Brother Bob Castellano of Premier Realty Group sold some property for Enrico & Noreen Vittori. As per his ad in the Shield he gave back to the Knights in the form of a $250 check.
• We will have a First degree in Jan.
• Our Memorial Mass in Nov had a very nice showing of close to 50 attendees.
• Dec Slam Breakfast had 155 customers. With 125 paying and 30 with Toys for Tots. We had some competition and we did not have our Cove Road billboard up to speed. YOU could help by asking a fellow parishioner to come with you and enjoy a great breakfast.

I found this picture when I Googled "Handsome Devils". OK-Time for a reality check. Here are 3 very long time Knights showing off their Knights Certificates. Len Weiner 55 years, Terry Cannon 51 years and Al Chrenko 55 years.
