Brothers,

Ash Wednesday, the very first day of March, starts us on our Lenten Journey. This Journey culminates on Easter Sunday when we celebrate the most significant holiday of our faith, the defeat of death through the resurrection of our Lord. Remember, Lent is a time for fasting and prayer. As we start this Journey I would like all brothers and sisters to pray for the unborn, who are murdered in the womb and our Christian brothers and sisters who are being crucified for their faith in the Middle East. Dedicate a moment of prayer for them, that they who succumb will be united with our Lord in Heaven.

Also in March, we celebrate Founder’s Day. In honor of Fr. Michael J. McGivney who on March 29, 1882 founded the Knights of Columbus at St. Mary’s Church in New Haven Conn. This little group has manifested into 1500 councils with 1.9 million members. Happy Birthday Knights of Columbus.

St. Joseph’s and St. Andrew’s membership drives were very successful and resulted in 23 new brothers taking the oath of membership. Three cheers for our membership team. They did an outstanding job. I am very proud of our Admission (1st) Degree team as well. They did a magnificent job with the initiation in February of 14 new members. When you see the new faces around the council – go up to them and introduce yourself and make them feel at home. Results of Holy Redeemer’s membership drive will be noted in the next Shield. Remember the more brothers we have the more we can accomplish. Please continue your search for new brothers.

February’s Slam Breakfast was dedicated to St. Andrew’s youth group. Fr. Jack and his staff promoted the Breakfast from the pulpit asking all Parishioners to participate. They did to the tune of 540 meals served. This is the highest number we have served in the past ten years. The hall was abuzz with activity as lines formed. Diners were awaiting their chance to sample some of our eloquent breakfast items. All the brothers and Columbiettes fell in love with the young men and women that helped. They are a fine bunch of young people. We will present St. Andrew’s youth group a check for $1,100. Great job.

I’ll take this opportunity to thank Brother Dave Merklin, John Hart and Tony Norelli for taking on the responsibilities of the “Cove Road Clean Up”. When you see them congratulate them and help them with their program.

St. Patrick’s Dinner Dance, Pot of Gold and Volunteer Dinner Dance are scheduled for March.

CU There. God Bless Frank Polis Grand Knight
I hope you will be as excited as I am to pass on the details of our “Amazing” Fashion Show we had on Saturday February 18, 2017. For the past 4 months, we, the Columbiettes, have been planning and organizing this special event for our charities. Tickets were printed up, so let the “fun” begin, we started to collect donations of articles from all our members, many made individual baskets. The final week was a blur of activity wrapping up baskets, buying tablecloths, raffle tickets etc. Friday came and it’s time to set up the hall; thanks to a small army, it was setup in a few hours. It was beautiful with the Valentine décor, 33 baskets on display, 58 door prizes, all raffled off to lucky winners. Fashions by SteinMart, hosted by Luanne and Lorraine to entertain the 226 guests. A special “thank you” to The Vittori family, Bert, Angela, Nikko, Gio, Gianna, Enrico, Noreen and Enrico for their help and guidance. Chris, our bartender, giving her time, kitchen help, Tony, Kenny, Tony V., waitresses, Julie and Courtney. We also were thrilled to have the help of Emily, Rigo & Yadira from St. Andrews Youth Group. We also recognized two past presidents, Terry Abruzzio and Jo DeCarlo, for being there to support us. Thanks to Yolie and John Rollando, for their help with the grueling job of tickets and seating, and signs and labels for 33 baskets. This was not a one-person accomplishment, it’s a membership effort by all including many husbands and friends, we give our heartfelt “THANKS”.

Our get well wishes to Joan Cannell, Lucille Massar, Jo DiCarlo, Margaret Tuzzio. Happy Birthday to Terry Abruzzio, Millie Capel, Marjorie Gaughan, Priscilla Joeckel, Catherine Kelly, Carol Lonergan, May Looney, Catherine Mackenzie, Cornelia Orland, Maryann Pierce, Francine Serra, Margaret Vecchio.

Lent is around the corner, we hope to have a speaker at our next meeting March 9th.

Please remember the homeless, the mentally and physically hurting, our military, less fortunate or abused. Pray for peace and let’s give our newly elected government a chance to “make it work”. One thing we know, it’s easy to “SMILE”, try it you will like it, I am sure.

Your president and “friend” Barbara.
Keep Christ in Christmas poster winner Mia Barros from Holy Redeemer.. With Mike Mulligan, Fr. Kasparek, Deacon Frank Gluhosky, Janice Maniscalco, Director of CCD & John Praskac.

St Andrew’s Youth helped at our last breakfast. We had 540 (wow) attend. So they get $1100 for their trip.
