Grand Knights Message

Brother Knights,

Well here we are, coming into February, the 8th month in this Council’s active year. It seems it will be a very fulfilling month.

We begin the month with our Slam Breakfast on February 4th, which is dedicated to St. Andrew’s Youth Group. Please come out and support them in making it another successful event.

Next up is our Valentine’s Dance scheduled on February 10th. Come out and enjoy this Dinner Dance with fellow Brothers, family, and friends. Michellina’s has been scheduled to cater this event. Call the office for your tickets and reservations.

We have scheduled our membership drive for February 17th and 18th. Any Brother interested in helping, please contact our Membership Director, Dennis Banks. It is a wonderful time to encourage men to join the Knights of Columbus.

Ending the month’s activities is one of our biggest fund raisers, the Tootsie Roll Drive. It has been scheduled for Friday and Saturday February 23rd and 24th at 5 of our local Publix Supermarkets. Please check your schedule and contact the store captain or our Deputy Grand Knight Ed Ciancone for a time slot to help make this drive successful.

A large “thank you” to all our wonderful Brother Knights who volunteer their time, talent and treasures to help our Council complete the many fulfilling tasks we perform.

God Bless

Grand Knight, Jim Pritchard

The Ethics of Love

Today, as the nation seeks a path through divisions, the need to rediscover the moral message of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is vital. Dr. King’s commitment to nonviolent protest was a principled response to the verifiable injustices and inequality faced by minorities and continues to hold relevance today. His 1957 essay, “Nonviolence and Racial Justice,” outlined the path for a love-based, nonviolent resistance. “At the center of nonviolence stands the principle of love,” Dr. King wrote in the essay. “In struggling for human dignity, the oppressed people of the world must not allow themselves to become bitter or indulge in hate campaigns. To retaliate with hate and bitterness would do nothing but intensify the hate in the world. Along the way of life, someone must have sense enough and morality enough to cut off the chain of hate. This can be done only by projecting the ethics of love to the center of our lives.” In a Time magazine op-ed, Supreme Knight Carl Anderson and Pentecostal minister Rev. Eugene F. Rivers, III said if Dr. King were here today, he would have explicitly condemned all the forms of violent protest in modern society.

“The better path, the only path to our salvation as a country,” they wrote, “was made clear by Rev. King in 1967: ‘The beauty of nonviolence is that in its own way and in its own time it seeks to break the chain reaction of evil.’ We can again break that chain reaction, and the prescription is the same one given by Rev. King. Now as then, religious leaders have taken the first step. For their own sake — and that of future generations — the rest of the country should do so as well.” Rev. Rivers is an American activist and the founder and president of the Seymour Institute for Black Church and Policy Studies. Supreme Knight Anderson is a former member of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

Just hours after the mass shooting in Las Vegas in October 2017, a group of Christian leaders called on religious leaders of all denominations to sign a letter endorsing the nonviolent approach advocated by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. From left: Rev. William Bass; Rev. Eugene Rivers, III, founder and director of the Seymour Institute for Black Church and Policy Studies in Boston; Bishop Edwin Bass, president of the Church of God in Christ Urban Initiatives; Jesuit Bishop George Murry of Youngstown, Ohio, chair of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ Ad Hoc Committee Against Racism; and Supreme Knight Carl Anderson.

The Catholic Difference & The Knights of Columbus Insurance

What is it? Why does it matter? What does it mean to you?

We were established as a mutual, non-profit, fraternal society to protect and insure our loved ones, serve our parish, our clergy, our community, and our world. Your insurer is a Catholic insurer and it is thoroughly aligned and consistent with your values and therefore a different kind of insurance company.

Father McGinney established an insurance company by the simple act of collecting funds to support families in need during those early council meetings. That insurance company is still here today, 135 years later and it is strong. However, there is more than the superior financial strength, consider these few and often overlooked points about your insurance company:

- Conservative Investment: Safety & growth, not just growth. We are a mutual company and you, if you are a contract owner, are a company owner. It is your money and the order manages that money according to your values. And it is the financial engine behind our awesome giving worldwide.
- Investments are CATHOLIC ALIGNED; we do not invest in companies that are not aligned with Catholic Values.
- The Business Model is not Sales Driven, like the Order, it is SERVICE driven.
  - The Agent directly and personally services claims and other contract service tasks, others often offer a 3rd Party Call Center.
  - The Agent will help you with any and all tasks you or your family may request during estate settlement and estate/retirement planning cycles.
  - The agent consults with you and helps you plan, without an obligation by you.

Insurance is not about us; it is about what we envision for our loved ones if we pass away. It is about what we want for them and not about what we need. Life brings changes and new opportunities to secure our retirement and protect our families at every stage. It is never a bad idea to review your current plans with a knowledgeable professional who shares the same values and beliefs. Call me soon.

Our Fashion show is just around the corner, and I want to thank ALL the members who have committed to making a basket and to those who donated articles for us to make up the rest of them. As of now we may have about 25+ baskets to raffle off, but we are still in need of more articles & gift cards to add to some of them. We will continue to collect any donations, just call me at (772) 781-6764, I will be happy to meet you or pick them up from your home. Thank you in advance.

Monday, at my home, starting with breakfast and breaking for lunch, were myself, Joan St. John, Carole Kuhlmeier, Lucille Massar, Hilde Dodge, as we put together about 9 baskets ready for bows. Thanks Ladies, a job well done. I want to wish our new ladies, June Kingston & Shirley Rossi good luck on February 3, 2018, as they go down to WPB for their 1st degree and Major degree, along with Elaine Culloty, Louise Cestaro and Marjorie Medley who will be completing their Major degree. The Christmas ornaments that were donated, were wrapped and dropped off to Salerno Bay & Stuart Nursing facilities along with cookies for the staff. They all were very much appreciated at both facilities for being thought of. Please get your dues in, asap, to help our FS Denise, be able to complete the paper work in a timely manner.

Happy February Birthdays: Diane Kelly, Donna Katula, Angie Norelli, Theresa Pittinger, Betty Polis, Marie Portulallo.

Remember our military, keep them safe, the homeless, mentally, and physically suffering, the abused, adults or children. Pray for our government, that they make the right choices for all of us.

Since my last letter, just before Christmas, we lost another long-time member and past Sentinel, Joan Cannell, who passed away at the Salerno Bay rehab facility. Sadly, we were not notified of her services in time. Rest in peace our dear Columbiette Sister.

Stay warm, let the sunshine on all our members.

Your friend and president

Saint Valentine, officially known as Saint Valentine of Rome, is a third-century Roman saint widely celebrated on February 14 and commonly associated with "courtly love." Although not much of St. Valentine’s life is reliably known, and whether or not the stories involve two different saints by the same name is also not officially decided, it is highly agreed that St. Valentine was martyred and then buried on the Via Flaminia to the north of Rome. In 1969, the Roman Catholic Church removed St. Valentine from the General Roman Calendar, because so little is known about him. However, the church still recognizes him as a saint, listing him in the February 14 spot of Roman Martyrology. The legends attributed to the mysterious saint are as inconsistent as the actual identification of the man. One common story about St. Valentine is that in one point of his life, as the former Bishop of Terni, Narnia and Amelia, he was on house arrest with Judge Asterius. While discussing religion and faith with the Judge, Valentine pledged the validity of Jesus. The judge immediately put Valentine and his faith to the test. St. Valentine was presented with the judge's blind daughter and told to restore her sight. If he succeeded, the judge vowed to do anything for Valentine. Placing his hands onto her eyes, Valentine restored the child’s vision. Judge Asterius was humbled and obeyed Valentine's requests. Asterius broke all the idols around his house, fasted for three days and became baptized, along with his family and entire 44-member household. The now faithful judge then freed all of his Christian inmates. St. Valentine was later arrested again for continuing to try to convert people to Christianity. He was sent to Rome under the emperor Claudius Gothicus (Claudius II). According to the popular hagiographical identity, and what is believed to be the first representation of St. Valentine, the Nuremberg Chronicle, St. Valentine was a Roman priest martyred during Claudius’ reign. The story tells that St. Valentine was imprisoned for marrying Christian couples and aiding Christians being persecuted by Claudius in Rome. Both acts were considered serious crimes. A relationship between the saint and emperor began to grow, until Valentine attempted to convince Claudius of Christianity. Claudius became enraged and sentenced Valentine to death, commanding him to renounce his faith or be beaten with clubs and beheaded. St. Valentine refused to renounce his faith and Christianity and was executed outside the Flaminian Gate on February 14, 269. However, other tales of St. Valentine's life claim he was executed either in the year 269, 270, 273 or 280. Other depictions of St. Valentine's arrests tell that he secretly married couples so husbands wouldn't have to go to war. Another variation of the legend of St. Valentine says he refused to sacrifice to pagan gods, was imprisoned and while imprisoned he healed the jailer’s blind daughter. On the day of his execution, he left the girl a note signed, "Your Valentine." Pope Julius I is said to have built a church near Ponte Mole in his memory, which for a long time gave name to the gate now called Porta del Popolo, formerly, Porta Valentin. The romantic nature of Valentine’s Day may have derived during the Middle Ages, when it was believed that birds paired couples in mid-February. According to English 18th-century antiquarians Alban Butler and Francis Douce, Valentine's Day was most likely created to overpower the pagan holiday, Lupercalia. Although the exact origin of the holiday is not widely agreed upon, it is widely recognized as a day for love, devotion and romance. Whoever he was, Valentine did really exist, because archaeologists have unearthed a Roman catacomb and an ancient church dedicated to St. Valentine. In 496 AD Pope Gelasius marked February 14th as a celebration in honor of his martyrdom. Relics of St. Valentine can be found all over the world. A flower-crowned skull of St. Valentine can be found in the Basilica of Santa Maria in Cosmedin, Rome. In 1836, other relics were exhumed from the catacombs of Saint Hippolytus on the Via Tiburtina and were identified as Valentine’s. These were transported for a special Mass dedicated to those young and in love. Fr. John Spratt received a gift from Pope Gregory XVI in 1836 containing a “small vessel tinged" with St. Valentine's blood. This gift now stands placed in Whitefriar Street Church in Dublin, Ireland. Other alleged relics were found in Prague in the Church of St Peter and Paul at Vysehrad; in the parish church of St. Mary's Assumption in Chelmno Poland; at the reliquary of Roquemaure in France; in the Stephansdom in Vienna; in Balzan in Malta and also in Blessed John Duns Scotus’ church in the Gorbals area of Glasgow, Scotland.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen

In today’s world of big business, it can be hard to tell who actually owns a funeral home. We’d like you to know that unlike the other firms in town, we are in fact, locally family owned and operated. So the next time you drive past our funeral home and it looks like a family owned business, there’s a good reason for it…it is.
