Brother Knights,

July 1st starts another Fraternal Year. I am looking forward to another year as your Grand Knight. This past year was not our greatest charitable year, but we continued giving as much as we could. Through the Slam Breakfast we additionally supported the youth groups of St. Andrew’s and Holy Redeemer parishes and added this year the Special Olympics Youth. We provide the American food booth for St. Joseph’s annual festival in October and provide Breakfast with Santa at Holy Redeemer. We also had a very successful Thanksgiving Day meal give away. You as a member can make a difference in everyday operations as we strive together to serve those in need in our community.

On a bright note, we had a successful Terrific Tuesday on June 26 with our new Caterer. We are looking forward to a new year of a successful schedule of Tuesday dinners and enjoyable Dinner Dances.

Installation of officers was on June 27th with only minor changes of officers. Chancellor Gregg Barbato stepped down, being replaced by Dennis Banks. Recorder John Praskac also stepped down, being replaced by Bud Duggan. Thank you, Gregg and John, for your years of service. Greg Gollhofer has accepted the position of 3-year Trustee to complete our officer listing.

We are always asking our members to consider giving of your time and talent for different events and tasks. Our Council runs on our volunteerism whether it is for a Knight’s function, event, or the Columbian Club, which is part of the Knight’s and runs our facility. July and August are usually slow months for the Council. We usually try to get our building in order and to prepare for the rush of September through May. Remember Bingo always needs help!

Please enjoy your summer and we will keep you updated on the upcoming events of the Council.

Grand Knight, Jim Pritchard

SOMETIMES, as the saying goes, we can’t see the forest for the trees. It’s all too easy to become so involved in our own projects, plans and points of view that we fail to see the larger picture. The Church is much bigger than our experience or knowledge of it. The same is also true of the Knights of Columbus. Let me offer a personal example. Since 2012, I have served as archbishop of Baltimore. It is a wonderful archdiocese, the oldest in the United States, replete with projects and challenges. It would be very easy for me to focus merely on one or two areas or initiatives. In a similar way, it is tempting to become so immersed in archdiocesan work as to lose sight of the larger Church. Truth to tell, until I began serving as supreme chaplain in 2005 I did not fully appreciate all the ways the Knights of Columbus serves both Church and society, nationally and internationally. In a phrase, I saw some trees but not the forest. I had known of the work of my local council, and it was that spirit of charity that first attracted me to the Knights. But my new role opened my eyes to the depth of the Order’s charitable outreach in many parts of the world. When I was a young priest serving in Prince George’s County, Md., a devastating fire struck a family home. Lives were lost, and the house was destroyed. I saw how quickly the Knights responded, ready to provide comfort, shelter and assistance. Similarly, I would see local Knights conducting fund drives in support of Special Olympics and those with intellectual disabilities. Over the last 13 years as supreme chaplain, my comprehension of the social and charitable works of the Knights of Columbus has expanded. In 2015–16, I watched as the Order worked with members of the U.S. Congress from both sides of the aisle and the Obama administration to secure an official declaration that the persecution of Christians and other religious minorities in the Middle East is in fact genocide. Not content with that, the Knights of Columbus has provided millions of dollars to alleviate the sufferings of those persecuted. For example, the Order supported a project that offers mental health programs in northern Iraq for those traumatized at the hands of ISIS. It supported housing for refugees who fled to Lebanon from Syria and helped to fund a film that will explore the response of many faiths to the plight of refugees and immigrants. And it has offered assistance to Coptic Christians in Egypt who have been targeted by ISIS. The Knights, in fact, support a host of humanitarian relief efforts throughout the world. When Typhoon Haiyan struck the Philippines in 2013, the local Knights sprang into action. Knights from Cebu City traveled to a devastated area to distribute sacks of rice and canned goods, while the Supreme Council authorized substantial funds to support humanitarian efforts. The Order also launched the Livelihood Project to help fishermen, farmers and craftsmen, who had lost everything in the typhoon, get back to work and to rebuild their lives. Similar efforts of humanitarian relief have been provided in places like Pakistan and Kenya. The Order has supported efforts to assist children with AIDS in Uganda, and it has helped to drill wells and provide clean water for residents in Guatemala and Ethiopia. Last year, when Pope Francis visited Ciudad Juárez, just across the U.S.-Mexican border from El Paso, Texas, the Knights provided funding to dioceses on both sides of the border. This papal visit helped to highlight the plight of migrants and the determination of the Church in the United States and Mexico to work together to help these individuals and families, and to work for just immigration laws. When unprecedented flooding struck Louisiana last year, the Knights provided disaster relief funding to the Diocese of Baton Rouge. In places like Magog, Québec, the Order has helped offer low-cost housing to pregnant women and single mothers in need. After the 2015 racial unrest in Baltimore, the Order, at my request, provided assistance to Catholic inner-city schools that offer the hope of a better life to many in our poorest neighborhoods. In addition to its many humanitarian efforts, the Order also supports a variety of ecumenical and interreligious projects, including those that foster dialogue with Islam. Perhaps better known are the efforts of the Knights of Columbus to protect and promote the dignity of unborn human life — such as providing more than 800 ultrasound machines that enable women to see their unborn children in the womb. I am continuously impressed by how the Order responds to the Church’s call to build a culture of life with great respect for both mother and child. Finally, I would also note with deep gratitude the support of the Knights in helping the efforts of the Church in the United States to preserve and defend the religious liberty both of individuals and religious institutions and ministries. All this is but a sampling of how robustly the Order is living out its Gospel principles of charity, unity and fraternity, bequeathed to us by Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney. With his help and prayers, let us see both the trees and the forest!

The Columbiettes

Hope you are enjoying the “quiet” around here, your table in the restaurant, your regular seat in church, less congestion on the roads, missing some friends or family as they are enjoying their time up north. Some of us are here, thinking of what we would like to do, in our organization, starting with our October meeting, partial new board getting ready to get all the details, paper work, and of course all our support. We will be having a round table meeting with the board members, old and new, to pass on the files & documents needed for the new members to function immediately following the installation of officers. Date, time and place will be decided and passed on to those necessary to attend.

Happy Birthday to our September & October babies: Judith Buschmann, Louise Cestaro, Marie Cicala, Leslie Conner, Jean DiGiorgio, Terri Fox, Barbara Guido, Joanne Hurtt, Constance Malandri, Marjorie Melley, Joan St.John, June Kingston.

Get Well to Jean DiGiorgio, Rosa Jackson, Donna Katula, Lucille Massar, Joan St. John, Margaret Tuzzio. If there is anyone you know who needs good wishes, please let me know.

Be safe this summer, traveling, keep hydrated, use sunscreen, and stay healthy & be careful especially during the 4th of July celebrations in the area. My term is coming to a close and I want to thank everyone who was there for me. I wish the new board members a good fun run. Stay connected, as we all look forward to a great season for our Columbiettes.

Some of our members, Elaine Culloty, Terri Fox, Joanne Hurtt, will be attending the Supreme Convention in Ft. Lauderdale in August. We wish them a safe, fun, learning process weekend. Pray for the abused, mentally & physically, the homeless, mothers & babies all who are struggling with illness beyond their control.

Pray for our military here and abroad, pray for their families, and always thank a veteran for their service.

Pray for our government to make the “right” decisions to benefit our United States of America, the Land of the Free.

Fly the American Flag with Pride.

A new caterer is on board, join us all to meet and greet them at the Knights of Columbus for upcoming dinners. Thank you all & see you at the October meeting on the 10th, at 1:00 pm.

Barbara Guido, President of The Columbiettes

The 4th Degree

The 2017-2018 season of the 4th Degree ended on Thursday night, June 21st with a scrumptious dinner by Enrico. The meeting witnessed the transition of Faithful Navigate Artie Birke to Paul Nelson. Paul hails from Council 10718 in Hobe Sound.

With his involvement in the in activities of Council 10718, he will be a great mix for our Assembly.

So, in closing I wish to thank Assembly 1764 for their support in honoring me to be their leader this past year.

Artie Birke, Faithful Navigator

DAILY PRAYER TO END ABORTION

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life, and for the lives of all my brothers and sisters. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion, yet I rejoice that you have conquered death, by the Resurrection of Your Son. I am ready to do my part in ending abortion. Today I commit myself never to be silent, never to be passive, never to be forgetful of the unborn. I commit myself to be active in the Treasure Coast pro-life movement, and never to stop defending life until all my brothers and sisters are protected, and our nation once again becomes a nation with liberty and justice not just for some, but for all.

Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

Florida Knights of Columbus Convention

Deputy Grand Knight Ed Ciancone with his Aunt, Sister Maria Ciancone
Saint Christopher is one of the most popular Catholic Christian heroes of the Faith. He is a saint, indeed listed as a martyr. He may have also been named Reprobus. He apparently died under the Roman Emperor Decius, in 251 AD. Most Catholics refer to him as Saint Christopher anyway, and his medals and the popular devotions to him are among the most common in Catholic piety. Other than his listing as a martyr, there are no primary sources referring to St. Christopher, only stories and traditions which have been passed down. According to these accounts, St. Christopher was extremely tall, and by some accounts he was even a giant! He was surely a man of significant physical stature. But, more importantly, he was a spiritual giant and a sure model and inspiration for the Christian faithful. Christopher decided one day that he wanted to serve the greatest king he could. He presented himself before his local ruler and entered service, until he noticed the king cross himself at the mention of the devil, revealing that the king believed the Devil to have more power. St. Christopher then decided to serve the Devil. During his search, he encountered a band of thieves, whose leader referred to himself as the Devil. But when this leader avoided a Christian cross out of fear, St. Christopher learned there was someone even more powerful than the Devil. St. Christopher found a hermit who taught him all about Christ, the King of Kings. The hermit suggested that he spend his life in prayer and fasting, a thing which St. Christopher, a large and probably often hungry man found difficult, he objected. The hermit suggested he then find something else that would please Christ. St. Christopher offered to work at a nearby river, and help travelers across. The fording was dangerous and many with less strength people had drowned. The hermit advised St. Christopher this would please Christ. One day, a child approached St. Christopher by the river and asked to be helped across. St. Christopher obliged. However, as he entered midstream, the river rose and the child's weight grew and became extremely heavy. It was only by great exertion that St. Christopher safely delivered the child to the other side. When St. Christopher asked the child why he was so heavy, the child explained that He was the Christ and when St. Christopher carried Him, he also carried the weight of the whole world on his shoulders. The child then vanished. Other legends state that St. Christopher traveled after this experience and evangelized thousands of people. Arriving in Lycia in Asia Minor, and witnessing to Christians there who were being martyred. At that time, St. Christopher was detained and ordered to offer a sacrifice to the emperor. When he refused, it was decided to attempt to persuade him with money and women. Two women were sent to seduce him, but instead he converted them to Christianity. After this, it was decided to have him killed, but various attempts to assassinate him failed. Eventually, he was arrested and beheaded. The name "Christopher" means Christ-bearer, and may allude to the legend of the man carrying the Christ Child across the river. Saint Christopher also did not become popularized in the Church until the 7th century, about three centuries after his supposed death. We know of his popularity because around the 7th century, churches and monasteries began to be named after him. This adds credibility to the supposition that St. Christopher was merely a legendary figure and not a real person. There is also speculation that St. Christopher could have also been confused with St. Menas, an Egyptian saint. Both Christopher and Menas are referred to as "Christ bearers" and are patrons of travelers. St. Christopher is the patron saint of travelers and of children. His feast day is July 25. Because he is not officially recognized by the Church, he has no date of beatification or canonization. Despite these technicalities, it is widely thought that he was real and that he continues to intercede on behalf of Christians, especially children, today.

In today’s world of big business, it can be hard to tell who actually owns a funeral home. We’d like you to know that unlike the other firms in town, we are in fact, locally family owned and operated. So the next time you drive past our funeral home and it looks like a family owned business, there’s a good reason for it…it is.
